The purpose of the Working Dog Sweepstakes is to recognize and honor dogs that possess verified working abilities that most closely resemble the UKC standard for the Belgian Shepherd Dog. Best and Best Opposite in Working Sweeps will be chosen from the winners of the male and female classes. Classes are divided by working level and gender. Each dog, regardless of age or variety, is entered in the class appropriate for the level/titles earned.

Disciplines include: agility, barn hunt, dock diving, flyball, herding, lure coursing, nosework, obedience, rally obedience, IPO, tracking, and weight pull. Titles earned in multiple venues for the same level count as one title (i.e., a UKC CDX and AKC CDX counts as one CDX title). The highest of progressive titles counts as one title (i.e., URO1 and URO2 equals one URO2).

Classes for males and females:

Level 1 is the introductory or novice skill level of any discipline. Dogs must have at least one of the titles listed below.

Level 2 is the intermediate skill level of any discipline. Based on complexity, as determined by the UBSDA Board, it may be the final accomplishable level in some disciplines. Dogs must have at least one of the identified titles OR two level one titles in different disciplines.

Level 3 is the advanced skill level of a discipline. Based on complexity, as determined by the UBSDA Board, it may be the final accomplishable level in some disciplines. Dogs must have at least one of the identified titles OR two level two titles in different disciplines.

Level 4 is the grand skill level of a discipline. Dogs must have at least one of the identified titles OR two level three titles in different disciplines.

Description of Titles: The following chart identifies specific UKC titles or title categories included within a level. Examples of equivalent titles from other kennel clubs or working clubs are provided. These examples are not all inclusive. If a discipline or title is not listed that you feel makes a dog eligible for a certain level you may submit that title's documentation along with your reasoning and request the sweepstakes chair consider the entry eligibility.
